🌐📷ow to take better photos of you gf (or bf) pt. 1 – This is BF Bootcamp, a content series. Take it from me who realized that taking “good” photographic photos aren’t the same as taking photos for your gf. Completely different ballgame. Hope this helps & see you back here for the next episode in a few days 📸 This mini series is about better photos, what should we go over next?

🌐📷etting your girl flowers – a mini series. Yes flowers die, & no it’s not a waste of money. Today we’re talking about it’s not the flowers at hand that’s the gift. Next episode we’re going to be breaking down the core pieces to a bouquet & how to put it together. Make sure you follow along so you don’t miss it 📸 We’ve graduated yall from taking better photos & now this. But in case you missed that series, just check out “BOOTCAMP” and I’ll

Ever spiral over one tiny symptom and convince yourself it's something serious? Same. That's why I partnered with @kaiserpermanente again to show you how connected care and coverage can make health stuff feel way less overwhelming. With their award-winning app, you can access virtual care and preventive tips, anytime, anywhere. Because health care doesn't have to be a whole big thing

STRUCTURE · 6 BEATS

HOOK 0:00-0:03

Opens with a direct, relatable rhetorical question ('Do you ever think that you're more sick than you actually are?') that calls out a universal anxious behavior, immediately followed by a self-affirming 'Yeah, same' to validate the viewer's experience.

TRANSITION/PROMISE 0:04-0:06

Pivots from the relatable problem to a solution tease with 'But there's a better way to handle it,' setting up the brand integration.

SPONSOR REVEAL 0:06-0:13

Explicitly names the partnership with Kaiser Permanente and reframes the hook's anxiety ('spiral every time your head feels weak') as the specific problem the brand addresses.

PERSONAL ANECDOTE/SETUP 0:13-0:16

Shares a relatable past behavior ('I used to look up every symptom and convince myself I had something serious') to deepen credibility and connection before the product pitch.

PRODUCT PAYOFF 0:16-0:25

Introduces the specific product feature (the award-winning app) and its benefits—real answers and preventive tips from professionals, anytime—directly resolving the anecdote's problem.

CTA 0:25-0:30

Closes with an imperative call to action, 'stop spiraling over every symptom and start trusting the pros,' reinforcing the app as the solution and prompting behavioral change.

HOOK STYLE

Do you ever think that you're more sick than you actually are?

0:03

Yeah, same.

0:04

But there's a better way to handle it.

0:06

So I partnered with Kaiser Permanente again to let you know that you don't need to spiral every time your head feels weak.

0:13

I used to look up every symptom and convince myself I had something serious.

0:16

But now I use the award-winning Kaiser Permanente app to help me get real answers and preventive tips from healthcare professionals on demand no matter where I am.

0:25

So stop spiraling over every symptom and start trusting the pros.
